Internal Regulations My Wednesday Club

Given our non-profit, associative status, the association is only able to operate financially thanks to the school fees paid by families which cover rental and maintenance of premises, salaries of staff, investment in equipment, etc. The association does not receive any subsidies.

Basic Principles

The Wednesday Club of Mon Ecole My School 31 welcomes children from the ages of 4 to 11 (ages 3 to 11 for children enrolled at Mon Ecole My School) in a bilingual, family environment.

A copy of the internal regulations is given to each child's family either by mail or by hand along with the registration form.

Registering a child at My School implies that both the family and the child adhere to, and agree to comply fully with, the provisions and code of conduct set out in these internal regulations. This is reflected by the signature of this text by both the child and his/her legal representatives.

Annual registration is valid for one school year, providing there is no breach of the present rules.

These internal regulations shall be revised each year, or during the year if necessary, by the Board of Mon Ecole My School.

I. Club times

Club times must be observed by all:

Arrival

The Wednesday Club opens at 8:00am every morning.

Children who arrive at the club before 8.00am remain under their parents' responsibility until then.

Home time

The children come out of Wednesday Club at 06:00pm at the very latest.

Regardless of what time the child leaves the Club, please let a staff member know you are leaving.

If the child is picked up by someone other than the parents, this person must provide proof of identity.

- The principle of religious indiscriminate participation of parents in school life;
- The duty of tolerance and respect for others;
- The protection against physical and mental abuse and the duty not to use violence in any form whatsoever, and to condemn its use;
- The need to immediately engage in dialogue in times of difficulty or conflict.

The following are therefore prohibited:

- All forms of discrimination, be it racism, anti-Semitism, homophobia or sexism,

Children, and their families, shall refrain from any behaviour, gestures or words that would undermine the function or the person of the teacher and the respect they owe to their classmates and their classmates' families.

Similarly, the teacher and any person involved in the school shall refrain from any behaviour, gestures or words, which imply indifference, humiliation and contempt for the child or their families.

Any violent behaviour or any act of verbal or physical harassment, whether on the part of a child or a family member, will give rise to a meeting between the parents and the members of the Board and the Headmistress, and potentially to a warning or to temporary or permanent exclusion of the child or the family from the Club, which cannot give rise to a refund in school fees of any nature whatsoever (the 2-month deposit will be cashed by the Mon Ecole My School 31 Association).

In addition to non-compliance with the present internal regulations, the following behaviour may give rise to a warning or exclusion of a child and / or family:

- voluntary deterioration of equipment or premises,
- dangerous behaviour,
- defamation, insult, provocation or verbal or physical aggression of staff, clubmates or other parents.

The Board and the Headmistress reserve the right to refuse the registration or renewed registration:

- in the event of a major dispute with the family.

VIII. Administrative and financial information

For all the children

All new children joining the Club will be required to undergo a period of observation, after which the child will or will not be accepted into the Wednesday Club. This two-week observation period, may result in the headmistress deciding to adapt the number of hours the child stays at the Club or in refusing the child. My School reserves the right to refuse an application.
